

Editors' Picks: 11 Things to See in New York This Week

Here's what's opening this week, plus a few shows to seek out before they close.

Sarah Cascone & Caroline Goldstein, August 7, 2017

Jean Shin, MetaCloud. Courtesy of Pioneer Works.

Each week, we search New York City for the most exciting and thought-provoking shows, screenings, and events. See them below.

Tuesday, August 8–Friday, September 1

1 L: David Goerk's 3 Untitled (7.11.13) (2013). R: Paul Pagk's Anaphora (2017). Images courtesy of artists and ART 3 gallery.

1. "Goerk/ Grytting/ Pagk/ Welish" at ART 3 Gallery

In the sparse white cube of ART 3 Gallery, three artists present works in varying media. David Goerk, Paul Pagk, Inger Johanne Grytting, and Marjorie Welish all work with color to investigate abstraction. David Goerk's drawings and sculptures appear to be based on the form of playing dice; even in his two-dimensional works, he injects movement into the otherwise static images. Paul Pagk's paintings, by contrast, make use of negative space to create dynamic colored canvases.

Location: ART 3 Gallery, 109 Ingraham Street, Suite 102, Brooklyn

Price: Free

Time: By appointment, contact +1 (646) 331-3162; info@art-3gallery.com